From Tuesday April 26, to Saturday April 30, 1796.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of April, 1796,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Robert Auriol Drummond Earl of Kinnoul and the Right Honourable Sir Grey Cooper, Baronet, were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of April, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for preventing certain Instruments from being required from Ships belonging to the United States of America; and to give to His Majesty, for a limited Time, certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the said United States;" which said Act has been continued by several subsequent Acts until the 5th Day of April, 1796. And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to extend the Powers of an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for giving " His Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with respect to certain Articles therein mentioned," the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to the Trade and Interchange between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp and Sailcloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic, which might be exported from this Kingdom; which last mentioned Act has also by several subsequent Acts been continued until the said 5th Day of April, 1796.

And whereas by another Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to continue the Laws now in Force for regulating the Trade between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the Territories belonging to the United States of America, so far as the same relate to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the Inhabitants of the Countries belonging to the said United States," it is declared to be expedient, that the said Act of the Twenty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, so far only as the same extends to the Trade and Commerce carried on between this Kingdom and the people and Territories belonging to the United States of America, and also that the said Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, should be further continued and be in Force; and it is thereby enacted, that the said Acts shall continue and be in Force until the 5th Day of April, 1797.

His Majesty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order and declare, That, until further Order, any Unmanufactured Goods and Merchandizes, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law (except Tobacco, for which Provision is herein after made, and except Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti) and any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Rosin, Pot-Ash, Pearl Ash, Indico, Malts, Yards and Bow-sprits, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, may be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, either in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, or in Ships built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, or in Ships taken by any of the Ships or Vessels of War belonging to the Government, or any of the Inhabitants of the said United States, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty of the said United States (of which Condemnation due Proof shall be given) and owned by the Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and may be entered and landed in any Port of this Kingdom, upon Payment of such Duties as the like Sorts of Goods or Merchandize are or may be subject and liable to if imported in British-built Ships, owned by His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated according to Law, from any British Island or Plantation in America, notwithstanding such Goods or Merchandize, or the Ships in which the same may be brought, may not be accompanied with the Certificates or other Documents heretofore required by Law.

And it is, in like Manner, further ordered, that all other Goods and Merchandize, not herein before enumerated or described, the Importation of which into this Kingdom is not prohibited by Law, (except Snuff, for which Provision is herein after made) and also Oil made from Fish or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale-Fins and Spermaceti, being the Growth, Production or Manufacture of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported from thence into this Kingdom in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of such Duties of Customs and Excise as are payable on the like Goods and Merchandize upon their Importation into this Kingdom from Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, according to the Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to an Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in Lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies remaining in the Exchequer, for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt;" or by any other Laws in Force passed subsequent to the said Act, touching the Duties contained in the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F.; and in Cases where different Duties are imposed upon the like Goods imported from different Countries not under the Dominion of His Majesty, then that such Goods shall be imported upon the lowest Duties which by the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. are required to be paid on the Importation of any such Goods from any European Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty.

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that, until further Order, all such Goods and Merchandize shall be intitled to the same Drawbacks as are allowed upon the Exportation of the like Goods and Merchandize when exported from this Kingdom, according to the said Schedule and Tables, marked A. D. and F. annexed to the before mentioned Act passed in the Twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, or according to any other Law in Force, passed subsequent to the said Act, touching Drawbacks. And it is hereby, in like Manner, further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods and Merchandize exported from this Kingdom to the Territories of the said United States, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Goods or Merchandize to any of the Islands, Plantations, or Colonies, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America. And it is hereby, in like Manner, further ordered, that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks upon the Exportation

Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp or Foreign Iron exported from this Kingdom into any British Colony or Plantation in America, or into the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron to other Foreign Parts; and all such Drawbacks and Bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as such Drawbacks and Bounties are allowed and paid, or are subject and liable to by Law; provided always, and His Majesty is further pleased to order, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Importation of Rice and other Articles, without Payment of any Duty whatever, by virtue of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to prohibit the Exportation of Corn, Meal, Flour and Potatoes, and to permit the Importation of Corn and other Articles of Provision, for a limited Time, in any Ships whatever, without Payment of Duty, and in the Manner in the said Act mentioned."

And His Majesty is hereby further pleased to order, that, until further Order, any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the said United States of America, may be imported in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as herein before required, upon Payment of the same Duties as Tobacco, imported by British Subjects from any British Colony or Plantation, is or may hereafter be subject to; and that any Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of any of the said Territories, may be imported in Manner before mentioned, upon Payment of such Duties as Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of Europe, imported from Europe, is or hereafter may be subject to, and may be warehoused and again exported; subject respectively nevertheless to all and singular the Regulations of an Act made and passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof;" And another Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof;" And also another Act passed in the Thirty first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to prevent other Ships than those laden with Tobacco from mooring and discharging their Lading, at the Places appointed by an Act made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in Lieu thereof; to prohibit the Exportation of damaged or mean Tobacco; and for permitting the Importation of Tobacco and Snuff into the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne."

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, That in case and as often as Rice shall not be allowed by the said Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, to be imported without Payment of any Duty, any Rice, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, which shall be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in Manner above-mentioned, may, upon the Importer paying down, in ready Money, the Duty of Eight-pence the Hundred Weight, being Part of the Duties now payable on the Importation of Rice, be landed and warehoused (except as hereinafter excepted) under His Majesty's Locks, in such Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of the Remainder of the Duties due and payable for such Rice, within Eighteen Months, according to the net Weight and Quantity of such Rice at the Time it shall be so landed: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure nevertheless, that upon the Importation of any such Rice into the Ports of London, Bristol, Portsmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaster, Falmouth, Pool, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glasgow, or either of them, in the Manner herein before expressed, the Importer shall be at Liberty to enter and land the same without Payment of any Duty whatever; in which Case such Rice shall be warehoused, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors, in such Warehouse or Warehouses as shall be approved of for that Purpose by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any Four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and any Three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; every Expence attending which Warehousing shall be borne by the said Proprietors: And that such Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their known Agent, shall from Time to Time, at all seasonable Hours, as Occasion may require, have free Access to such Warehouses, in the Presence of some proper Officer of the Customs, for the Purpose of Screening and shifting the Rice, to prevent it's receiving Damage. And that if any Rice, which shall be so imported from the Territories of the said United States into any of the Ports abovementioned respectively, and warehoused as aforesaid, shall be taken out of the Warehouses wherein the same shall be secured, under the joint Locks of His Majesty and the Proprietors as aforesaid, for Home Consumption, the full Duties, due and payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice into this Kingdom for Home Consumption, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouses, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Ports where such Rice shall be so warehoused; but that such Proprietor, if he intends to export such Rice, shall have Liberty to export the same from such Warehouses respectively, under the usual Regulations, without Payment of any Duty whatever: Provided that the Exportation of any such Rice, hereafter to be warehoused, be made within the said Space of Eighteen Months; and if not within that Period, that the full Duties, payable by Law upon the Importation of such Rice, be paid for the same, and not be afterwards drawn back: And that if any Rice which shall have been imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and shall have been warehoused upon the Importer's Bond, in Manner aforesaid, shall, within the Time herein before mentioned, be taken out of the Warehouse wherein it shall have been so secured, to be exported directly from thence, the Bond entered into for the Payment of the said Duties thereon shall be discharged and cancelled by Debenture or Debentures, made out and passed in the usual Manner, for the Quantity or Quantities of Rice duly exported. And if any Rice imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not herein before specially named, and warehoused in Manner aforesaid, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse for Home Consumption, the Remainder of the Duties, due and payable by Law, shall, previously to it's being taken out of such Warehouse, be paid to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the Port where such Rice shall be so warehoused; and that such Payment shall be made, and the Warehouse cleared for such Rice hereafter to be warehoused, within the said Space of Eighteen Months, otherwise the same shall and may be sold for the Duties, in like Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as any other Goods are now directed by Law to be sold for the Duties.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th of April 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of His Majesty in Council respecting the Exportation of Rock Salt; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Rock Salt; and for making further Provisions relative thereto;" it is enacted, That His Majesty may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting or carrying Coastwise, or the attempting to export or carry Coastwise, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever: And His Majesty, judging it necessary to prohibit the Exportation of Rock Salt, doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, under the Authority of the said Act, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months from the Date of this Order in Council, export or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or load or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever, without Leave or Permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by aforesaid Act: His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, that nothing herein contained shall prevent Rock Salt being carried Coastwise under the usual Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, nor the Exportation of the same to Ireland, or to any other of His Majesty's Dominions, under the usual Conditions and Regulations, and upon Security being given, by the Exporter and Two other Persons, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be one) by Bond, in such Penalty as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the said Rock Salt shall be exported to some Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and none other; and that a Certificate shall be produced within Six Months from the Date of the Bond, if such Rock Salt shall be entered out for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe, and within Twelve Months if for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in America or the West Indies, and within Eighteen Months if for any of the British Settlements Settlements or Factories in Asia or Africa, under the Hand of the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where such Rock Salt shall be so landed; and if there shall be no Officer of the Customs, then under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place, testifying that the said Rock Salt has been duly landed at the Port or Place for which the same was entered out. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d of April, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April, to the Thirtieth Day of June next, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

Whitehall, April 30.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, embrace this Opportunity, the first afforded us in our public Capacity, of approaching the Throne, to present our most affectionate Congratulations to your Majesty on your happy Escape from the Danger that threatened our precious Life, on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament.

We marked in that Event the Hand of Providence; and considering the gracious Interposition, not only as an Expression of Favour to your Majesty but of Mercy to the Nation, in guarding the Life of one of the best of Kings, who, in the whole Tenor of his Administration, appears to have placed his Happiness in promoting the Happiness of his People, we did not fail to offer our Thanksgivings to the Most High, and to implore, in your Majesty's Behalf, the Continuance of His protecting Care. Confiding in the Wisdom and Goodness of your Majesty's Government, we are encouraged to hope, that the daring Attempts of the Unprincipled and Profligate, either to subvert the British Constitution or to violate the Person of its supreme Magistrate, will always be defeated, by a gracious Providence giving Effect to the Measures of your Parliament for that Purpose.

Looking forward with Hope to the happy Period, when, by the Blessing of Almighty God upon your Majesty's Councils and Arms, an honourable Peace shall be established upon a solid Basis, we will not, meanwhile, cease to exhort all Ranks of People committed committed to our Charge to be faithful, united and vigorous in the Service of their Country.

That your sacred Majesty and your august Consort, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Branches of your illustrious House, may still enjoy the peculiar Favour and Protection of Heaven, is the constant Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

The Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Dumfries.

At Dumfries, the 20th of April 1796, signed in Name, Presence and by Appointment of the Synod, Andrew Brown, Moderator.

Whitehall, April 26.

The following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

BARBADOES.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council, and Assembly of this your Majesty's most ancient Colony, filled with Horror at the outrageous Attack upon your sacred Person, and in the Exercise of the most important Duty which the Constitution has appointed to the Royal Character, humbly beg Leave to tender the most warm Congratulations of our united Breasts on the providential Escape of a Life so precious to your People, and from a Wound that must have deeply affected the very State itself, had the Success of those barbarous Assaults been answerable to their flagitious Purpose. And although, in our Situation, too remote in Place and weak in Power to presume to offer, with all the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, within the happier Sphere of your Attraction, any Assistance of ourselves, for the Protection of your Royal Person and the Support of your Majesty's Government; yet unable to remain silent under the painful Impression of those unparalleled Insults thus offered to the Father of his People, under the most mild and gracious Reign, we must intreat your Majesty your Majesty to accept, at least, this Tribute of our Hearts, now lifted up to Heaven, for a lasting Preservation of your Majesty's Life and Government, still securing to your Subjects all those Blessings which have been hitherto derived from both, equally to your Majesty's own Glory and the Nation's Splendor and supreme Felicity.

W. Bishop, President of the Council.

G. P. Ricketts, Governor.

By Order of the House,

J. G. Alleyne, Speaker.

Robert Baker, of Upper Dunstable House in the County of Surrey, and of Nicholashayne Culmstock in the County of Devon, Esq;

Whitehall, April 30, 1796.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Letter, signed Timothy Tite, was lately sent to Mr. William Smith, of Frayl Mill, near Alton, in the County of Hants, Miller, containing divers wicked Menaces and Threats, that unless he the said William Smith did not immediately lower the Price of his Flour, a Number of Persons had determined to destroy his Corn Mills, and to kill him in a most inhuman and barbarous Manner.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in the writing or Vending such Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most-gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, April 30, 1796.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 5th Day of October last, a Number of ill-disposed Persons assembled, in a riotous and unlawful Manner, at Perranzebuloe in the County of Cornwall, and by Force and Arms prevented John Christian, the High Constable of the Hundred of Pyder in the said County, and other Constables then and there with him, from apprehending William Rowe alias Sharpy, John Thomas alias Geak, Joseph Teague and James Morrish, of the Parishes of Perranzebuloe aforesaid, and St. Agnes in the said County, for feloniously breaking and entering the House of John Johns, and unlawfully taking away therefrom a large Quantity of Wheat and Malt, be the said John Christian having Warrants, under the Hand and Seal of John Thomas, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, for that Purpose: And whereas, in the Execution of such unlawful Acts, the said Persons so assembled as aforesaid fired several Shots into and upon the House of David Mitchell, one of the said Constables, to which House the said John Christian had retreated for Protection and Safety:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who so feloniously fired such Shots into and upon the said House, into which the said John Christian had so retreated as aforesaid, and who in the said unlawful and tumultuous Manner prevented the due and proper Execution of the said Warrants, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually fired such Shots) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, April 16, 1796.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an incendiary Paper, of which the following is a Copy, has been circulated in different Parts of the County of Cornwall.

"Gentlemen of Camborne Church Town. This is to inform you, that unless you do stand to the agreement made Concerning the Butter and Meat, that it shall be sold as we proposed (that is) Meat of whatsoever kind shall not exceed 4d. per Pound, nor fresh Butter 8d. per Pound, nor Salt Butter 6d. per Pound, nor Salt Pork 6d. per Pound, for if you do, we will take the Liberty to call to see you again, for we have not given it up yet, for we will have it so;—or we will burn the Town and you in the Mits of it."

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and dispersing the incendiary Paper above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Paper) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, April 25, 1796.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was, on the 14th Instant, received by John Tottenbam, Esq; Colonel-Commandant of the Royal Wakefield Volunteers, through the Post-Office of the said Town.
